Blackwall Tunnel weekend part-closure announced

Another part-closure of the Blackwall Tunnel has been announced by Transport for London (TfL).

The southbound route will be closed from 23:00 GMT on Saturday until 05:00 on Monday to allow for work on a new road layout ahead of a new river crossing, TfL says.

A closure between 23:00 Friday and 06:00 Saturday has also been listed, external as a contingency.

The Silvertown Tunnel is due to open in 2025, after which drivers using both tunnels will pay up to £4 at peak times to cross the Thames.
