Cyclist dies after late night crash with bus

A cyclist has died in east London after a collision with a bus, the Met Police has said.

The force added emergency services were called to Westferry Road, near Arnhem Place in the Isle of Dogs, at about 00:30 GMT on Saturday to reports of a road traffic collision.

The cyclist, aged in his 40s, died at the scene. He has not been named and officers are trying to locate his next-of-kin.
